2. Reasons

With respect to the allocation of profits, in keeping with the basic policy to ensure the continuous and stable dividends distribution, we believe that the Company should engage in appropriate return of profits to shareholders in line with the Company's performance, while also working to strengthen our management foundation and increase our internal reserves in preparation for future business expansion. In accordance with this guideline, we will decide by comprehensively taking into account our consolidated performance and financial situation.

The Company will utilize internal reserves primarily for investments to strengthen our competitiveness and our business foundation, including the research and development of new products and new services and M&A to acquire original technologies. We will also use internal reserves for the purposes of investments to enhance environmental protection, safety, and quality, etc., as well as for construction of systems for productivity improvement, and employee trainings in order to increase our corporate value.

With regard to dividends for the period under review, we plan to pay a year-end dividend of ¥37.00 per share, and as a result, the annual dividend will be ¥61.00 per share including an interim dividend of ¥24.00 per share.
