To our shareholders:

We would like to extend our sincere gratitude to our shareholders for their continued support. On the occasion of reporting on our Company's 86th fiscal year (from April 1, 2024 to March 31, 2025), I would like to extend a greeting.

The Japanese economy experienced a moderate recovery supported by improvements in the employment and income environment and the effects of various government policies, although some signs of stagnation remained. However, downside risks to the economy have increased, including the potential negative impact of U.S. trade policies and continued inflation, which may affect consumer sentiment and personal consumption.

Domestic demand for corrugated containers remained level with the previous year, as increased demand from the electrical/machinery and food sectors offset a decline in demand for fresh produce due to poor harvests.

In the Domestic Corrugated Container sector, overall sales volume remained on par with the previous year. Declines in shipments of fresh produce and e-commerce home delivery were offset by growth in shipments of processed foods, our mainstay business. Regarding pricing, the product price revisions initiated at the beginning of the fiscal year progressed steadily in the second half.

Housing remained sluggish, continuing to face a challenging business environment. At Sweden House Co., Ltd., the number of units sold decreased compared to the previous fiscal year, but improvements were made in both selling prices and profit margins. At Tamazen Co., Ltd., progress was made in reducing inventories of completed houses in Aichi Prefecture, its main business area, resulting in a significant YoY increase in units sold.

In the Transportation and Logistics sector, sales were driven by the launch of operations at storage-type logistics centers for major retailers, initiatives in relay transportation to support long-distance shipping, and efforts to optimize logistics costs. Conversely, profits and losses were impacted by rising costs associated with labor shortages, vehicle acquisition, and the start-up of new logistics centers.

In these circumstances, we will be entering the final fiscal year of our Second Medium-Term Business Plan. Under our management philosophy of "Providing value for consumers, enveloping life with sustainability and conservation for our clients and the global environment," we will continue to address sustainability challenges such as climate change and human capital while striving to enhance corporate value.

The year-end dividend for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2025, is scheduled to be set at 55 yen per share, with the payment date set for June 9, 2025, as resolved at the Board of Directors meeting held on May 23, 2025. As a result, the annual dividend will be 100 yen per share, including the interim dividend of 45 yen per share. To all of our shareholders, we sincerely appreciate your continued understanding, support, and cooperation.

June 2025

Mitsuo Nakahashi, President & Chief Executive Officer

1. Matters Regarding the Current Status of the Corporate Group

(1) Business activities and results

The Japanese economy, for the current fiscal year, experienced a moderate recovery supported by improvements in the employment and income environment and the effects of various government policies, although some signs of stagnation remained.

Under these circumstances, the Group posted consolidated net sales of 219,613 million yen, an increase of 3.8% from the previous fiscal year, consolidated operating income of 9,360 million yen, an increase of 16.2%, consolidated ordinary profit of 9,400 million yen, an increase of 9.1%, and current net income attributable to parent company's shareholders of 6,508 million yen, an increase of 22.6%.

Corrugated

Operating income	8,592 million yen (Up 12.3% YoY)

Net sales ratio

Domestic demand for corrugated containers remained level with the previous year, as increased demand from the electrical/machinery and food sectors offset a decline in demand for fresh produce due to poor harvests.

In the Group's domestic Corrugated Container sector, overall sales volume remained on par with the previous year. Declines in shipments of fresh produce and e-commerce home delivery were offset by growth in shipments of processed foods, our mainstay business. With regard to pricing, the product price revisions that had been pursued since the beginning of the fiscal year made progress in the second half.

Our corrugated packing factories increased production capacity by installing state-of-the-art processing equipment at Atsugi and Nagano Works. At our folding carton factories, continuous investment in facilities led to a YoY increase in sales volume.

We established the Safety Promotion and Quality Assurance Division and the Safety Promotion Department within head office functions. We opened a safety training center equipped for hands-on training, strengthening our occupational health and safety systems. We also continued our efforts to reduce greenhouse gas emissions, promoted diversity and strengthened training programs, invested in human capital through initiatives to enhance employee engagement, and worked to improve the working environment by reinforcing heat countermeasures at factories and supporting work-life balance.

In the overseas Corrugated Container sector, both the U.S. and Vietnam operations achieved year-on-year increases in sales volume through expanded sales to existing customers.

As a result, the Corrugated Container sector recorded sales of 119,676 million yen, an increase of 1.5% over the previous year, and operating income of 8,592 million yen, an increase of 12.3%.

Housing

Sales	57,843 million yen (Up 7.0% YoY)
Operating income	917 million yen (Up 253.4% YoY)

Net sales ratio

In Japan, the housing market remains sluggish, just like in the previous year, facing a challenging environment.

In the Group's Housing sector, Sweden House Co., Ltd. worked to pass on rising material and labor costs through price adjustments and to improve gross profit margins. Although the number of units sold declined compared to the previous fiscal year, both average selling prices and profit margins improved. The Company also maintained high customer satisfaction ratings and was ranked in the top spot overall for the 11th consecutive year in the ORICON Customer Satisfaction Survey in custom-built housing.

At Tamazen Co., Ltd., the resolution of completed housing inventory in Aichi Prefecture—its main business area—coupled with a reduction in price-cutting competition led to an increase in new customer visits and a significant YoY increase in the number of units sold.

As a result, the Housing sector recorded sales of 57,843 million yen, an increase of 7.0% compared to the previous year, and operating income of 917 million yen, an increase of 253.4%.

Transportation and Logistics

Sales	42,093 million yen (Up 6.5% YoY)
Operating income	940 million yen (Down 15.8% YoY)

Net sales ratio

In the logistics industry, consumer-related freight remained firm at 910 million tons (up 4.5% YoY). However, a decline in construction-related freight significantly impacted overall volume, and the total volume of domestic cargo transport fell for the third consecutive year to 4,089 million tons (down 1.4% YoY).

In the Group's Transportation and Logistics sector, sales were driven by the launch of operations at storage-type logistics centers for major retailers, initiatives in relay transportation between the Kanto and Kansai regions to support long-distance shipping, and efforts to optimize logistics costs. Conversely, profits and losses were impacted by rising costs associated with start-up of new logistics centers, including higher labor and vehicle acquisition costs due to limits on drivers' overtime hours and ongoing shortages of personnel and vehicles.

As a result, the Transportation and Logistics sector recorded sales of 42,093 million yen, an increase of 6.5% compared to the previous year, and operating income of 940 million yen, a decrease of 15.8%.

(2) Capital investments

Total capital investments of the corporate group in this fiscal year came to 7,417 million yen. The main capital investments were for increasing production capacity at the Atsugi Works, etc., and for upgrading equipment for quality improvement purposes.

(3) Financing

In terms of financing during the fiscal year, we procured 10,000 million yen in long-term borrowings in order to install and upgrade equipment, and to allocate it to the repayment of long-term borrowings. Our long-term borrowing repayments totaled 11,896 million yen.

(5) Issues to be addressed

The Japanese economy is expected to see a moderate recovery supported by improvements in the employment and income environment and the effects of various government policies. However, downside risks to the economy have increased, including the potential negative impact of U.S. trade policies and continued inflation, which may weaken consumer sentiment and adversely affect personal consumption. Additionally, close attention must be paid to fluctuations in financial and capital markets.

Amid these circumstances, the Group will be entering the final fiscal year of its Second Medium-Term Business Plan. Under our management philosophy of “Providing value for consumers, enveloping life with sustainability and conservation for our clients and the global environment,” we will continue to address sustainability challenges such as climate change and human capital while striving to enhance corporate value.

In the Corrugated Container sector, we will continue focusing on sales activities emphasizing profitability. We will also place greater emphasis on our overseas businesses, which are expected to be growth drivers. At the same time, we will strengthen our integrated development, manufacturing, and sales structure to supply high-quality, high-value-added products, such as the Quick-Stack Tray, which received the WorldStar Award in the 2025 WorldStar Competition organized by the World Packaging Organisation (WPO).

The business environment in Housing is expected to remain difficult due to concerns over rising prices for lumber and construction materials. At Sweden House Co., Ltd., we aim to further strengthen the brand image of our environmentally friendly and highly comfortable homes while integrating the Group’s renovation businesses to improve efficiency, reduce costs, and optimize the use of human resources to establish a more effective service delivery structure. At Tamazen Co., Ltd., we will strive to attract more new visitors through the use of digital tools such as computer graphics and 3D walkthroughs to help visualize completed homes while also working to strengthen our sales organization.

In the Transportation and Logistics sector, the business environment is expected to become even more challenging due to persistently high energy costs and the ongoing need to address the 2024 problem facing the logistics industry. Under these circumstances, we will focus on stabilizing our business foundation by deepening our presence in the beverage sector, one of our key strengths, engaging in negotiations to optimize logistics costs, expanding our fleet of vehicles, establishing new warehouse locations and reviewing existing site layouts, and enhancing collaboration with partner companies to secure transport capacity and improve logistics quality.

The outlook for consolidated performance for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2026 is expected to be sales of 230,000 million yen, an increase of 4.7% from the previous fiscal year, operating income of 11,000 million yen, an increase of 17.5%, ordinary profit of 10,800 million yen, an increase of 14.9%, and current net income attributable to parent company’s shareholders of 7,000 million yen, an increase of 7.5%.

To all of our shareholders, we sincerely appreciate your continued understanding, support, and cooperation.

(3) Policy for determining remuneration

The Basic Policy on the Remuneration of Directors is comprised of monetary fixed remuneration and directors' bonuses and non-monetary stock remuneration as performance-linked remuneration paid according to the performance in a single fiscal year to function as a sound incentive for sustainable growth. This remuneration is paid at an appropriate level according to the positions and roles of each Director and the Company's performance.

In regards to the calculation method and determination procedures of the fixed remuneration for Directors, remuneration is calculated using the guidelines that determine the standards according to the positions and roles of the Directors. The Board of Directors will pass a resolution based on the report of the remuneration committee chaired by an external Director to ensure objectivity and transparency relating to the determination of remuneration.

We will change to a method to also adjust the amount of remuneration in regards to performance-linked remuneration for Directors according to the degree of achieving the SDGs as a specific ESG issue. This will be a non-financial indicator that strengthens the Group's efforts with a long-term perspective in addition to financial indicators. The Board of Directors will determine the method of calculating that and its results in consultation with the remuneration committee.

Moreover, we are working to enhance our business execution structure and to strengthen the supervisory functions of the Board of Directors. Against that background, the purpose of the stock remuneration is for Directors to share the benefits and risks of stock price fluctuations in the mid- to long-term with shareholders and to elevate their desire to contribute to an increase in the stock price and corporate value more than ever before. Under that aim, we have decided to allot Restricted Shares within the allotment limit determined in advance according to positions and roles as non-monetary stock remuneration for Directors excluding external Directors. The Board of Directors will determine the number of shares to be allotted to each individual in consultation with the remuneration committee. In principle, the Company will lift the Transfer Restrictions on allotted Restricted Shares with a resolution by the Board of Directors when officers retire.

In addition, the Board of Directors has confirmed that the remuneration of the Board of Directors for the current fiscal year is consistent with and in line with the policy for determining remuneration approved by the Board of Directors.

The basic policy of the Company is that the remuneration for Audit & Supervisory Board Members shall be paid at an appropriate level as compensation for the duties of each Audit & Supervisory Board Member. The remuneration for Audit & Supervisory Board Members is determined through discussions with the Audit & Supervisory Board Members within the range of the amount of remuneration based on the resolution at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Responsibilities of Management, Audit & Supervisory Board Members and the Audit & Supervisory Board for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan, this includes the maintenance and operation of internal control deemed necessary by management for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing whether it is appropriate to prepare the consolidated financial statements with the assumption of the Group's ability to continue as a going concern and disclosing, as required by accounting principles generally accepted in Japan, matters related to going concern.

Audit & Supervisory Board Members and the Audit & Supervisory Board are responsible for overseeing the Directors' performance of duties within the maintenance and operation of the financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our responsibilities are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion on the consolidated financial statements based on our audit from an independent point of view. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the decisions of users of these consolidated financial statements.

In accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit process to perform the following:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. Design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Selecting audit procedures to be applied is at the discretion of the auditor. Obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.
- Consider, in making those risk assessments, internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, while the purpose of the audit of the consolidated financial statements is not expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used by management and their method of application, as well as the reasonableness of accounting estimates by management and related notes thereto.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis for preparing the consolidated financial statements and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the notes to the consolidated financial statements or, if the notes to the consolidated financial statements on material uncertainty are inadequate, to express a qualified opinion with exceptions on the consolidated financial statements. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate whether the presentation of the consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto are in accordance with accounting standards generally accepted in Japan, as well as evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the related notes thereto, and whether the consolidated financial statements fairly represent the underlying transactions and accounting events.
- Plan and perform audit of the consolidated financial statements to obtain sufficient and appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries to provide a basis for our opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and inspection of the audit of the consolidated financial statements. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We report to the Audit & Supervisory Board Members and the Audit & Supervisory Board regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit process, and other matters required by auditing standards.

We also provide Audit & Supervisory Board Members and the Audit & Supervisory Board with a statement that we have complied with the ethical requirements in Japan regarding independence that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements, and communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, any measures taken to eliminate obstruction factors to independence or any safeguards applied to reduce obstruction factors to a tolerable level.
