Regarding Media Reports

Certain media reported that the relevant parties, including Toyota Motor Corporation (“TMC”) are scheduled to make a corporate decision regarding the privatization of Toyota Industries Corporation today. However, the reports contain information that may lead to misunderstandings, such as the total consideration for the share acquisition may amount to approximately 6 trillion yen, and such information was not disclosed by TMC.

We plan to make an official decision on this matter today. Once a decision is made, we will announce it promptly.
