Notice Regarding Recording of Extraordinary Losses (Impairment Loss and Provision for Store Closure Losses)

Gyet Co., Ltd. (hereinafter "the Company") hereby announces that it has recorded extraordinary losses (impairment loss and provision for store closure losses) in its financial results for the second quarter (interim period) of the fiscal year ending February 2026, as detailed below.

1. Recording of Extraordinary Losses (Impairment Loss and Provision for Store Closure Losses)

During the second quarter accounting period (June 1, 2025 to August 31, 2025), the Company recorded an impairment loss of 31 million yen (37 million yen for the cumulative second quarter period) for stores that showed deteriorating profitability. Additionally, after comprehensive consideration of future business conditions and the expiration timing of store lease contracts, the Company recorded a provision for store closure losses of 23 million yen (30 million yen for the cumulative second quarter period).

As a result, the Company recorded a total of 229 million yen in extraordinary losses for the cumulative second quarter period.

2. Future Outlook

The impact of the above extraordinary losses on business performance has been reflected in the "Financial Results for the Second Quarter (Interim Period) of Fiscal Year Ending February 2026 [Japanese GAAP] (Non-consolidated)" disclosed today.
