2. Reasons

The Company recognizes the high importance of balancing retained earnings for growth investment and shareholder returns. Therefore, the Company set the basic policy to maximize shareholder’s value through the distribution of dividends.

In accordance with the basic policy, the distribution of dividends per share for FY2025 was set at JPY 4.00, with the aim to pursue a progressive dividend. As a result of over achieving the initial forecast for FY2025, together with the belief of having stable financial performance in place, the Company decided to increase the dividend for JPY 1.00 per share from the most recent dividend forecast and to make a distribution of JPY 5.00 per share.
