3. Reason

The Company's basic policy on profit distribution is to ensure stable and long-term return of profit to shareholders and make effective use of capital toward growth, while ensuring sufficient soundness for contributing to development of local economies.

Based on the said basic policy and the operating results and other factors, the Company has decided to increase both the interim dividend and the year-end dividend forecast by ¥5 per share compared to the previous forecasts, resulting in the interim dividend of ¥30 per share and the year-end dividend of ¥30 per share.

As a result, the annual dividend forecast for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2026 is expected to be ¥60 per share, an increase of ¥15 from actual results for the previous fiscal year.
