1. Overview of Operating Results, etc.

(1) Overview of Operating Results for the Period Under Review

During the six months ended November 30, 2025 (the “six-month period under review”), the Japanese economy experienced somewhat subdued corporate production activities and service provision capabilities, as a result of supply constraints caused by factors such as elevated material prices and a worsening labor shortage. Under these circumstances, following the transition to the Takaichi administration, policy management has been carried out under the banner of “responsible and proactive public finances.” However, as fiscal measures take time to show their effects in underpinning the economy and, in addition, uncertainties remain regarding the impact of these policies during a phase of rising prices, a recovery in personal consumption still needs to be carefully considered.

Looking at the international situation, despite a limited agreement on some of the tariff measures imposed by the U.S., export-related companies continue to face uncertainties as tariff levels for major items remain high. In the Middle East, fluctuation risks for crude oil markets and energy prices remain unresolved, with geopolitical risks in the region recurrently winding down and rising again. Such international political and economic factors, including tensions with China, may increase uncertainties over the world economy, thereby adversely affecting the stability of Japanese export companies and their related supply chains.

The contact center and business process outsourcing (BPO) industry to which the Group belongs enjoys steady demand amid tightening labor markets and corporate cost structure reviews, while the supply constraints may subdue business confidence within the industry. As a measure to ease these constraints, expectations for the use of generative artificial intelligence have risen significantly, and its introduction has been progressing in an environment resembling a testing site, where it is being explored for multiple applications, given its compatibility with the business model.

Under such business conditions, in its Medium-Term Management Plan 2025, which covers the period until the fiscal year ending May 31, 2026, the Group has established a vision of “a company that continues to grow healthily from roots to buds” and, with which it is working to achieve the following three management policies: (1) Strong growth of Omnia LINK, (2) Advanced contact center and BPO, and (3) Strengthening of management base.

(Contact centers and BPO services)

During the six-month period under review, contact centers and BPO services experienced progress in acquiring new projects and expanding existing operations in the financial, IT and distribution industries, which are our focus areas. In the financial sector in particular, although once robust demand for contracts related to the new NISA declined, we have captured the demand to respond to new regulations and compliance requirements, including unauthorized-use responses in the securities industry, as well as support-desk operations related to anti-money laundering (AML) at cooperative financial institutions. In the IT industry, we have deepened our business with major telecom carriers and, in addition, expanded support services for help desk and sales operations associated with the spread of system solutions using data and generative artificial intelligence. Meanwhile, net sales decreased year-on-year as these expansions failed to offset the reduced volume of business in a specific public project which had continued from the previous fiscal year.

Regarding operating expenses, we have promoted the optimization of costs aligned with the level of net sales—we have implemented initiatives to curb the indirect labor cost rate in accordance with the short-term plan disclosed on May 29, 2025, and have completed the initiatives for restructuring to optimize the total number of seats at each location based on the plan during the six-month period under review. While these measures are intended to improve a profit margin from the second half of the fiscal year ending May, 31, 2026, during the six-month period under review, operating profit decreased year on year due to a decrease in net sales and the impact of expenses temporarily occurred for optimizing our cost structure, despite the progress of a reduction in SG&A thanks to curbing the indirect labor cost. As of November 30, 2025, the number of operation booths totaled 6,660 in 16 locations nationwide.

(Development and sale of the Cloud PBX, Omnia LINK, and other systems)

Regarding the sale of the Cloud PBX, Omnia LINK to outside customers, the number of licenses as of November 30, 2025 totaled 5,279, up 42.8% year-on-year, and the annual recurring revenue (ARR: calculated by multiplying monthly recurring revenue by 12 months) reached ¥1,270 million, up 34.1% year-on-year, showing the drastic increases and maintaining steady growth. The increases were mainly due to the commencement of delivering licenses related to large projects newly acquired. In addition, the number of proposals for large projects with the scale of using over 100 licenses per company also increased by strengthening our structures for sales.

Furthermore, as the Company has been focusing on enhancing the added value of Omnia LINK, it announced during the six-month period under review that Omnia LINK is newly equipped with an automatic call evaluation function, which uses generative artificial intelligence to reduce to zero the time required to produce call-quality scores. With the aim of steadily increasing the number of licenses, we will continue to strengthen our structures for sales and service provision and promote ongoing enhancement of its functions with the use of generative artificial intelligence, thereby leading to the acquisition of large projects.

As a result of the above, net sales were ¥17,939 million (down 2.5% year-on-year), operating profit was ¥527 million (down 38.3% year-on-year), ordinary profit was ¥536 million (down 36.8% year-on-year), and profit attributable to owners of parent was ¥245 million (down 56.2% year-on-year).

Segment information is omitted as the contact center and BPO business is the Group's sole segment.

(2) Overview of Financial Position for the Period Under Review

(Assets)

Total assets as of November 30, 2025 amounted to ¥13,417 million, a decrease of ¥1,076 million compared with the end of the previous fiscal year. This was mainly due to a ¥1,100 million decrease in cash and deposits and a ¥112 million increase in accounts receivable - trade.

(Liabilities)

Total liabilities as of November 30, 2025 amounted to ¥5,307 million, a decrease of ¥234 million compared with the end of the previous fiscal year. This was mainly due to a ¥105 million increase in income taxes payable and a ¥197 million decrease in provision for shareholder benefit program.

(Net assets)

Total net assets as of November 30, 2025 amounted to ¥8,110 million, a decrease of ¥842 million compared with the end of the previous fiscal year. This was mainly due to a decrease in retained earnings resulting from the dividends of surplus of ¥1,087 million, despite the recording of ¥245 million in profit attributable to owners of parent.

(3) Overview of Cash Flows for the Period Under Review

(Cash flows from operating activities)

Net cash provided by operating activities was ¥251 million (¥677 million provided in the same period of the previous fiscal year). The main component was profit before income taxes of ¥371 million (¥846 million in the same period of the previous fiscal year), partly offset by an increase in trade receivables of ¥112 million (a ¥174 million increase in the same period of the previous fiscal year).

(Cash flows from investing activities)

Net cash used in investing activities was ¥270 million (¥335 million used in the same period of the previous fiscal year). The main components were purchase of property, plant and equipment of ¥167 million (¥69 million in the same period of the previous fiscal year) and purchase of intangible assets of ¥74 million (¥127 million in the same period of the previous fiscal year).

(Cash flows from financing activities)

Net cash used in financing activities was ¥1,079 million (¥736 million used in the same period of the previous fiscal year). The main component was dividends paid of ¥1,087 million (¥746 million in the same period of the previous fiscal year).

(4) Explanation of Consolidated Financial Results Forecast and Other Forward-looking Information

There is no change to the consolidated financial results forecast for the fiscal year ending May 31, 2026, which was announced on July 11, 2025.

As for the differences between the consolidated financial results forecast for the six months ended November 30, 2025 and the actual financial results, please refer to “Notice of Differences Between Consolidated Financial Results Forecast and Actual Financial Results for the Second Quarter of the Fiscal Year Ending May 2026 and Recording of Extraordinary Losses” announced on January 9, 2026.
