(Progress of Disclosure) Notice Concerning the Purchase of Crypto Assets (XRP)

gumi Inc. ("the Company") hereby provides an update on the progress of its purchase of crypto assets (XRP), as the scheduled purchase period previously announced in the "Notice Concerning the Purchase of Crypto Assets (XRP)" dated August 29, 2025, has concluded. Details are as follows:

1. Reason for Non-completion of Purchase and Future Policy

The Company had planned to acquire XRP with an upper limit of 2.5 billion yen and proceeded with the acquisition process accordingly. However, in light of the rapid fluctuations in the crypto asset market during the purchase period, we prioritized the maximization of investment efficiency and, as a result, strategically curtailed our purchases during this period. Consequently, the purchase was not completed within the designated timeframe. Moving forward, we will continue to closely monitor market trends and consider acquisitions at the most opportune timing.

2. Future Outlook

The Company will conduct a quarterly mark-to-market valuation of its held crypto assets, and any resulting valuation gains or losses will be recognized in the income statement. If there is any material impact on its consolidated financial results moving forward, the Company will disclose such information promptly.
