Notice Regarding Dividend Forecast for the Fiscal Year Ending December 31, 2026

The Company hereby announces that, at the Board of Directors meeting held today, it has resolved to establish the year-end dividend forecast for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2026, as follows:

1. Background of Dividend Forecast

In determining its dividend policy, the Company comprehensively considers the balance between returning profits to shareholders and strengthening internal reserves, while prioritizing reinvestment in business growth to achieve sustainable expansion of corporate value.

Regarding dividend implementation, whereas the Company previously distributed dividends only once at the end of the fiscal year, we have decided to transition to a biannual dividend system, consisting of an interim dividend and a year-end dividend. This decision aims to enhance the investment appeal of the Company's shares and encourage long-term shareholding.

The year-end dividend forecast for the fiscal year ending December 2026 is as follows.
