Note: The Company conducted a 4-for-1 stock split effective on December 1, 2025, pursuant to a resolution of the Board of Directors’ meeting held on October 30, 2025. Accordingly, the year-end dividends for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2026 and thereafter reflect the adjustment resulting from this stock split. Please note that the year-end dividend for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2026 would be 72.00 yen per share.

2. Policy of decision on payment of dividends

The Company believes that prioritizing investments for growth that helps strengthen its business foundation will contribute to achieving profit growth and improving its corporate value in a sustainable manner while maintaining its financial soundness based on its strong cashflow-generating capability.

In addition, the Company is committed to pursuing a management approach mindful of capital efficiency and has therefore set an ROE target as one of its KPIs. The Company is also aware that providing shareholder returns, which helps increase capital efficiency, is a key measure in capital allocation.

Based on this belief, the Company seeks to enhance shareholder returns by paying dividends as a fundamental measure, comprehensively considering trends in business performance, ROE level, opportunities of investments for growth, and other factors.

Specifically, the Company has set a dividend policy of stably and sustainably increasing dividend per share through profit growth, with a target dividend payout ratio of 40% on a consolidated basis.

Based on the above dividend policy, the Company has decided to pay 18 yen per share as the year-end dividend for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2026.
