Approach and Policy regarding Reduction of Minimum Investment Units

１. Approach to reduction of minimum investment unit

Digital Arts Inc. (the "Company") recognizes that improving the liquidity of its shares, expanding investment opportunities for individual investors, and broadening its shareholder base are important management issues that contribute to the appropriate valuation of the Company's shares in the capital markets.

２. Policy for reduction of minimum investment unit

The Company's current investment unit is below ¥500,000 based on the recent market price of its shares.

At present, the Company has not made any decisions regarding specific measures such as a stock split or the timing of their implementation. However, the Company will continue to review the appropriate investment unit from the perspective of improving the investment environment for individual investors and expanding its shareholder base, taking into comprehensive consideration factors such as stock market conditions, the market price of the Company's shares, trading liquidity, and shareholder composition.

Should any matters requiring disclosure be determined in the future, the Company will promptly disclose such information.

(Note) This disclosure is made in accordance with Article 409 of the Securities Listing Regulations (Disclosure regarding Reduction of Investment Units) established by the Tokyo Stock Exchange, given that the investment unit of the Company's stock as of March 31, 2026 is 500,000 yen or more.
