Position and Policy on Reduction of Investment Unit

1. Position on reduction of investment unit

Tokyo Electron Ltd. (TEL) recognizes that reducing the stock investment unit is a useful means of creating a more accessible investment environment, encouraging individual investor participation in the market, and revitalizing the stock market.

2. Policy on reduction of investment unit

TEL will split its common stock effective October 1, 2026, in the proportion of one share into five shares. TEL will continue to consider a reduction of the Company’s stock investment unit, taking into account future stock market trends, the Company’s stock price level, status of distribution, changes in shareholder composition, and other factors.
