2. Comments for the Current Month

Sales of air conditioners, TVs, and popular children's stickers remained strong; however, sales at existing stores were 90.9% YoY, marking the first decline in 20 months.

The absence of last year's sales contributions from government stockpiled rice and Nintendo Switch 2 had a significant impact on both sales and customer traffic.

In addition, seasonal merchandise sales were weak due to lower temperatures compared with the previous year.
