Notice Concerning Postponement of Announcement of Medium- to Long-Term Management Plan

EAT&HOLDINGS Co., Ltd (the “Company”) hereby announces that it has decided to postpone the announcement of the Medium- to Long-Term Management Plan, which was scheduled for today. The details are described below.

1. Background to the postponement of announcement

The Company planned to announce the Medium- to Long-term Management Plan today. However, it is difficult, under current circumstances, to make a reasonable financial forecast due to the impacts of increased costs of raw materials, materials, energy, and other things that are primarily attributed to Middle East tensions. Consequently, the Company has judged that announcing the plan under these circumstances will not be able to sufficiently ensure the validity of information to be disclosed and has decided to postpone the announcement.

2. Future outlook

The plan is intended to, with careful consideration to current external circumstances, envision a more reliable growth path through multifaceted deliberations such as deepening dual-track management of the Restaurant Business and Frozen Food Business as well as executing overseas strategies and M&A strategies. The Company will announce it as soon as it becomes possible to make a reasonable financial forecast.
