◇ Sales Summary

In September, the calendar alignment had one more public holiday compared to the previous year.

Despite persistent unseasonable weather including typhoons and heavy rain during the month, lower temperatures drove a strong start for autumn product sales, increasing both foot traffic and sales, particularly at shopping centers.

By product category, promoted new sneakers and apparel such as matching tracksuits performed well.

All stores sales grew 14.6% to a year ago in this month.

Existing stores sales also showed a year on year growth of 14.9% compared to the same period in the previous year.
