2. Reasons

The Company considers stable returns to shareholders and securing management resources for future growth to be among its highest management priorities. The Company uses the total return ratio as a key indicator for shareholder returns and determines the level of returns based on a comprehensive assessment of its profitability and financial condition. In addition to performance-based dividends, the Company flexibly repurchases its own shares, taking into consideration medium- to long-term growth investments and improvements in capital efficiency.

Under the medium-term management plan "VISION 2030," announced on May 1, 2026, the Company intends to ensure stable returns to shareholders with a target total return ratio of 30% to 45%. Based on this policy, the Company has set the interim dividend for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2027 at 10 yen per share (regular dividend), an increase of 4 yen from the previous fiscal year's interim dividend of 6 yen per share (regular dividend).

For the fiscal year ending March 31, 2027, the Company forecasts a year-end dividend of 10 yen per share (regular dividend) and an annual dividend of 20 yen per share (interim dividend: 10 yen; year-end dividend: 10 yen), an increase of 2 yen from the previous fiscal year's annual dividend.
