Reference information

Under the Broadcasting Act, if the ratio of voting rights held by foreign nationals, etc. reaches or exceeds 15% of the total number of voting rights, the Company, which is certified supplier for basic broadcasting stations, is obligated to give public notice thereof every six months pursuant to the provisions of Article 125, paragraph 2 of the Broadcasting Act, as applied mutatis mutandis to Article 116, paragraph 5 of said Act, and of Article 91, paragraph 2 of the Regulations for Enforcement of the Broadcasting Act.

In addition, the Company, which has received a radio stations license to transmit basic satellite broadcasts, will be subject to revocation of certification as a radio license to transmit basic satellite broadcasts under the Radio Act. if, with regard to the voting rights of foreign nationals, etc. (i.e. (i) any person who does not hold Japanese nationality, (ii) any foreign government or representatives thereof, (iii) any foreign corporation or organization), reaches or exceeds for one third or more of the total number of voting rights.

For this reason, should such a state be reached, certified supplier for basic broadcasting stations may refuse to list or record in their register of shareholders shares held by foreign nationals, etc. pursuant to the provisions of Article 125, paragraph 1 and of Article 125, paragraph 2 of the Broadcasting Act, as applied mutatis mutandis to Article 116, paragraph 2 of said Act.
