Notice Concerning Revision of Full-Year Consolidated Earnings Forecasts and Revision of Dividends of Surplus (Interim Dividend) and Year-End Dividend Forecast (Increase)

SUN-WA TECHNOS CORPORATION hereby announces that at a Board of Directors meeting held today, it has resolved to revise its full-year consolidated earnings forecasts as follows.

SUN-WA TECHNOS CORPORATION also resolved to distribute dividends of surplus (interim dividend) with September 30, 2026 as the record date and revised the year-end dividend forecast, as detailed below. Pursuant to Article 459, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act, SUN-WA TECHNOS CORPORATION's Articles of Incorporation provide that dividends of surplus shall be distributed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

1. Revision of the full-year consolidated earnings forecasts for the fiscal year ending March 2027 (April 1, 2026 to March 31, 2027)

	Net sales	Operating profit	Ordinary profit	Profit attributable to owners of parent	Basic earnings per share
Previously announced forecasts (A) (Announced on May 8, 2026)	million yen 173,000	million yen 6,000	million yen 6,200	million yen 4,200	yen 270.01
Revised forecasts (B)	190,000	7,640	7,900	5,500	352.75
Change (B-A)	17,000	1,640	1,700	1,300	—

(Reference) Results for the previous fiscal year (Fiscal year ended March 2026)	148,329	4,058	4,776	3,265	212.35

Reason for revision

In the industrial electronics and mechatronics fields in which the SUN-WA TECHNOS CORPORATION Group is involved, demand from the semiconductor manufacturing equipment industry and other industries has remained strong as AI-related demand continues to expand. In addition, labor-saving and efficiency-enhancing investments are continuing against the backdrop of labor shortages. Moreover, as demand for power system stabilization increases in light of increased investments related to renewable energy toward decarbonization, large-scale projects related to storage battery systems are continuing.

In this environment, business performance has exceeded the forecasts announced on May 8, 2026, and the Company has revised its full-year consolidated earnings forecasts based on the results for the first half of the fiscal year under review and recent order trends.

2. Dividends of Surplus and Revision of Year-End Dividend Forecast

(Reference) Results for the previous fiscal year (Fiscal year ended March 2026)	60.00	62.00	122.00	57.5%	4.27%

Reason for revision

SUN-WA TECHNOS CORPORATION positions the return of profits to shareholders as one of its management priorities. The Company aims to distribute dividends in a sustainable and stable manner with a consolidated dividend on equity (DOE) of at least 4.0% each year.

In the initial forecasts announced on May 8, 2026, the Company had planned an annual dividend of 130 yen for the fiscal year ending March 2027, up 8 yen from 122 yen in the previous fiscal year.

Based on the upward revision of the full-year consolidated earnings forecasts, the Company has decided to raise both the interim dividend and the year-end dividend forecast by 5 yen in order to strengthen the return of profits to shareholders. As a result, the annual dividend is expected to increase by an additional 10 yen from the initial forecast of 130 yen to 140 yen, a total increase of 18 yen from the previous fiscal year's dividend of 122 yen.

SUN-WA TECHNOS CORPORATION will continue to consider increasing dividends according to business performance while balancing investment for growth and shareholder returns, based on a dividend policy aiming at DOE of 4.0% or more.
